A DIRECT CABLE TO SINGAPORE. The Eastern Extension, Australasian

and China Telegraph Co. Hongkong, 13th January, 1890. The Hon. A. P. MacEwen, Hongkong. DEAR Sir, -Since my return to Hong. kong last month, I have read your speech in the Legislative Council on the 4th December, and the discussion thereon relative to the proposed Cable to Singapore. " .... As the estimate of cost named by you (£100 per mile) is not in accordance with our experience, and as I gather that the public have not clearly noted the distinction, both in cost and in other respects between the first proposed Direct Cable to Singapore, and the subsequent proposal to carry the cable via Borneo. I now wish to set forth as clearly as possible a statement of the cost and other considerations involved by the two schemes. First of all, my directors would wish it to be distinctly understood that their terms for both plans have not been put forward on their own initiative, but have been given in response to enquiries addressed to them by the authorities and others interested in the establishment of a line of tolegraph between Singapore and Hongkong which should be purely under British control. In 1885 and again in 1888 enquiries were addressed to my Directors as to the terms upon which the Eastern Extension Tele-

To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL.' Hongkong, 16th January, 1890. Sin, - The writer of your Leading Article last night is apparently one of a rather large class, who affect pure Anglo-Saxon and wish to eliminate the Latin element altogether from modern English, or relagate it to a respectful distance in the background. It is therefore somewhat amusing. to find in the article a phrase in Ciceronian style, an audeniable Latinism, 'What an absurd contention.

LONDON'S SCANDAL. The American papers received by the London scandal. In some of them Prince Albert Victor's name is mentioned in connection with the affair, but the latest and acrique. most authentic reports emphatically deny the statement that the heir to the British throne was at all mixed up in the matter, In one American paper there is a sensational description of the discovery in Seattle of the man Hammond, who ran the house The Balance of $801.04 to be carried to in Cleveland Street, but the story is rather doubtful. When Hammond found that the game was up he' demanded certain sums of money from his supporters to enable him to fly to America. It is alleged that Newton acted as go-between in the business. Hammond got his money and made himself scarce. It is very certain that Newton's explorer. client disappeared at about the same time, but of all these transactions except the retirement from the army and from his country of Lord Arthur Somerest, Newton alleges that he has a satisfactory explanation. The persons for whom he acted, as I understand his statement, did not occupy prominent positions. This does not appear to be very material to the issue, but it would be unfair to anticipate Newton's defense in any way, and probably he may have a stronger case than a reported inter- the house:

view would lead any one to suppose. What is quite clear is that the authorities are now determined to go on, and that, sooner or later, the real culprits will stand revealed to the public eye, even if they manage to escape the hand of justice. This may, perhaps, allay the irritation which has been undoubtedly created by the belief that the Government was shielding the offenders on account of their rank or influence. It may therefore, happen that the threatened attacks in Parliament may never be made.

London, Decomber 10.—The magistrate at Bow-street Police Court has before him in secret to-day several crown lawyers, a number of the boys alleged to have been connected with the West End scandal and other witnesses. It is believed further warrants will be issued for the arrest of persons charged with complicity in the scandal.

THE INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC. Weshington, December 24, -George W. Wurts, Charge d'Affaires at the United States Legation at St. Petersburg, has sent the State Department an account of the prevalence of la grippe in Russia with interesting comments. He states that about the middle of November public attention was called to the large number of persons who were falling ill with much the same symptoms -fever, severe pains in the head, back and limbs. For lack of a better name he states that this malady has been called influenza, but it shows signs of a typhoid character, though not of a maliguant nature, and up to the date of writing. December 5th, no fatal case, had been renorted. The illness in most cases is very

There is no exaggeration in putting the number of sick at fully two-thirds of the population of St. Petersburg. Certainly not a house has escaped its visitation. The Emperor has been very ill with it for several days, and scarcely any member of the imperial family has been free from it. More than 40,000 cases have been medically authenticated, but they represent but a
